Moments of Frustration
Pressures mounting
Tensions that make hectic

When one can feel the vibration of emotions
Surrounding
And appreciate bubbling happiness

Necessary for one's own self
Time to be alone
And dream.

When one can feel the opposition
And still carry on
Always striving for something better

Registration Day: Anticipation of a New Year

August 29 and 30 saw Wasco High once again buzzing with human activity. After a vacation from books, rules, and teachers, the students returned to the campus to register and check out books and lockers. Some were excited; some were fearful. The fact remained - one week of freedom (or boredom) was left until Wasco High opened its doors for another year.

Homecoming's Exciting Moments

Homecoming is a celebration for all alumni of Wasco High. A downtown rally was held on Friday afternoon to see which class had the most spirit by the making of floats, by a yelling contest, and by a peanut butter eating race. The annual Homecoming Game is a time when all the alumni return to their alma mater to see how the school has progressed since they left it. The Wasco Tigers easily rolled over McFarland 33-7 that night. Sukie Dennis was crowned Homecoming Queen. Danny Aguirre was her escort.

The night of October 30th was a night of excitement, thrills and disappointments. The occasion - The 5th Annual Powderpuff Game. Both the junior and senior teams had practiced every day after school for three weeks. The game proved that both teams had worked very hard. It was rumored that this game was the hardest fought, yet the cleanest game in Powderpuff history. Though the juniors put up a good fight, the seniors walked away with the victory, 20-12.

Thorton Wilder's "Our Town" has been put on by many schools at different times. This year a group of 22 students presented it for the enjoyment of the Wasco High students and members of the community. The cast spent many hours of diligent work, and the Thespians showed their superior acting abilities in this dramatic presentation. The play was about the life of a typical American rural community.

Rallies and Assemblies

The 1972-73 school year of Wasco High was blessed with many rallies and assemblies. The assemblies ranged from a snake show to a show by the U.S. Navy Show Band West. The rallies were highlighted by the master of ceremonies Mike Rexius, and his sidekick, Benny Lewis. In the rallies, everyone looked forward to the yelling contests which were usually won by the Juniors or seniors.

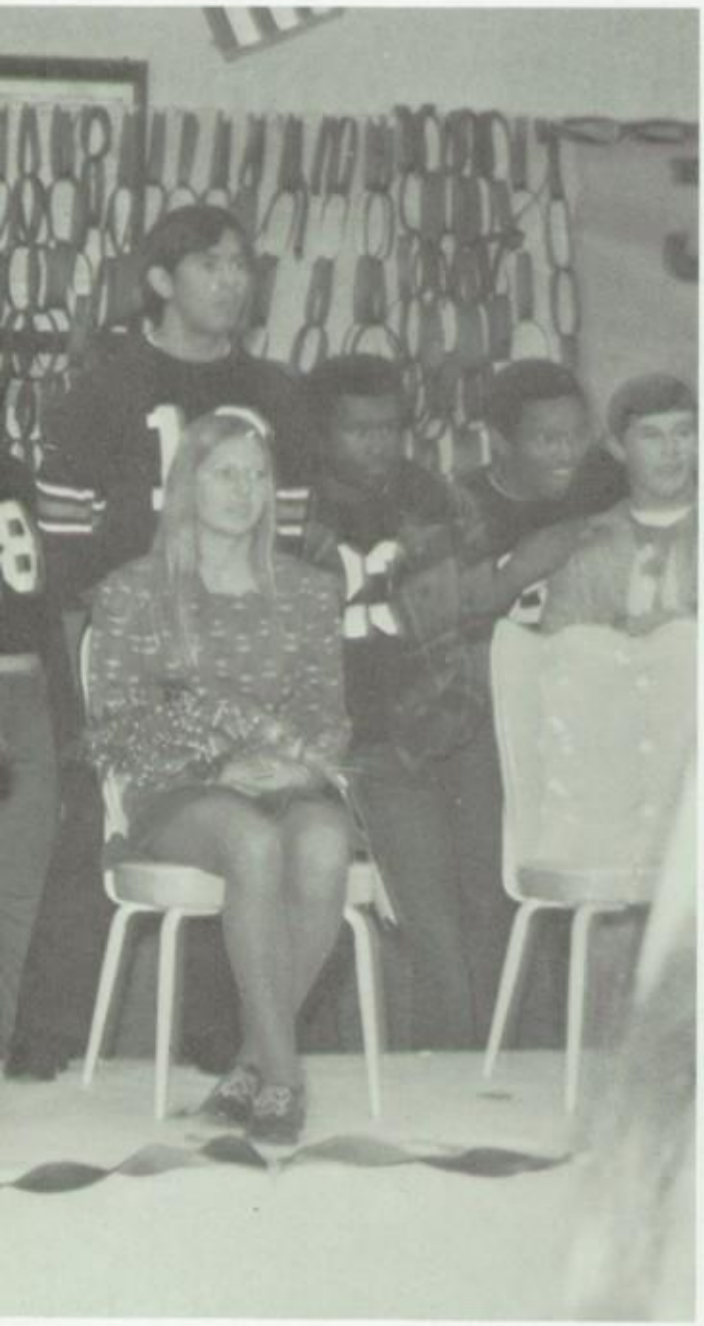
Week of Spirit

"Shafter Week" is a period of five days in which Wasco High shows its spirit and gets ready for the big game against Shafter on Friday night. Each day is highlighted by something different. The long anticipated day is "Dress up like Shafter Day." This is the day that the students of Wasco High wear their worst-looking garments. On the other four days, each class shows its spirit by wearing ties, armbands, or special garbs. The week was also illuminated by the crowning of Lynne Warkentine as Football Queen. The candidates were chosen by the Varsity Football team, and all members voted for the girl of their choice.



A Typical Day

Life at Wasco High or any school is full of excitement and novelties. Students spend most of their hours at school enjoying the social aspects, the sports activities and occasionally they find time to study. These pages show some of the different aspects of the typical student at this facility for education.

Christmas in Paradise

December 21st was a night of excitement in "Christmas in Paradise." The event: The 1972 Snowball. Red, green and white decorations transformed the gym into an attractive setting as the couples danced to the sounds of "Movement." The evening was made complete by the crowning of the 1972 Snowball Queen, Miss Vicki Hanson.

"Murder in the Cathedral" was presented by some of the students of Wasco High on March 23 and 25. The production was about the death and the events leading up to the death of Thomas Becket, the Archbishop of Canterbury. The tragedy was written by the famous T. S. Eliot. The cast (page 35) are as follows: (kneeling) Linda Klingenburg, Wenette Mcguire, Anna Glenn , Graciela Whittenburg, Barbara Schroeder, (standing on stage) Terri Ragsdale, Brenda Townsend, Susan Yursik, Mike Griebling, Randy Ingalls, (standing on platform) Scott Semar, Benny Lewis, Sanford Spaulding, David Lewis, Greg Malofy, Edward Hedgecock, Warren Bone, Randy Hart, and Tom Clark.

Leisure Time

When the students of Wasco High are not studying, they are doing many things, but because of censorship, we cannot put most of them in this book. We will only put the good things that they do on this page. Ah . . . we can't think of any.

The Tiger Rag staff strives to make the paper a true representative of the student body.

Wasconian

Preparation of the yearbook with all of its joys, sorrows, pleasures, heartaches, rewards, and frustrations is the duty of a yearbook staff during any school year. The artisans of the 1972-73 Wasconian had exceptional ability, energy and imagination. Led by its various editors, in a democratic manner, they and their colleagues have constructed a book of which the Wasco High students will be proud. Meeting deadlines, taking and retaking pictures, and preparing copy were all part of the excitement and reward due the personnel on this yearbook.

Running to Victory

With only five returning lettermen, the outlook was not too good for the cross-country team. The team was led by a "super" sophomore, Sammy Garcia, who proved to be a bright prospect the previous year. In 1971 the team finished second in league. The team proved itself this year by taking second to Arvin.

At the Valley Meet the team finished third behind Clovis and Madera although Garcia again took first, beating all 109 competitors in the two mile run with a time of 10:01.1. A great finish for a young team. Watch out for 1973.

THE VARSITY STORY

What are the ingredients of a true Wasco High varsity basketball player? A considerable amount of suffering, sacrifice, and patience are vital from pre-game butterflies to post-game congratulations. One look at the final score proves a satisfying accomplishment to each player, the team and the school.

No one player can be credited with the win or loss; it's a team performance - the desire to win. It means dedication not only through time but through loyalty to the team.

Because the Tigers possess all of these ingredients, they can proudly say: "We're number one."

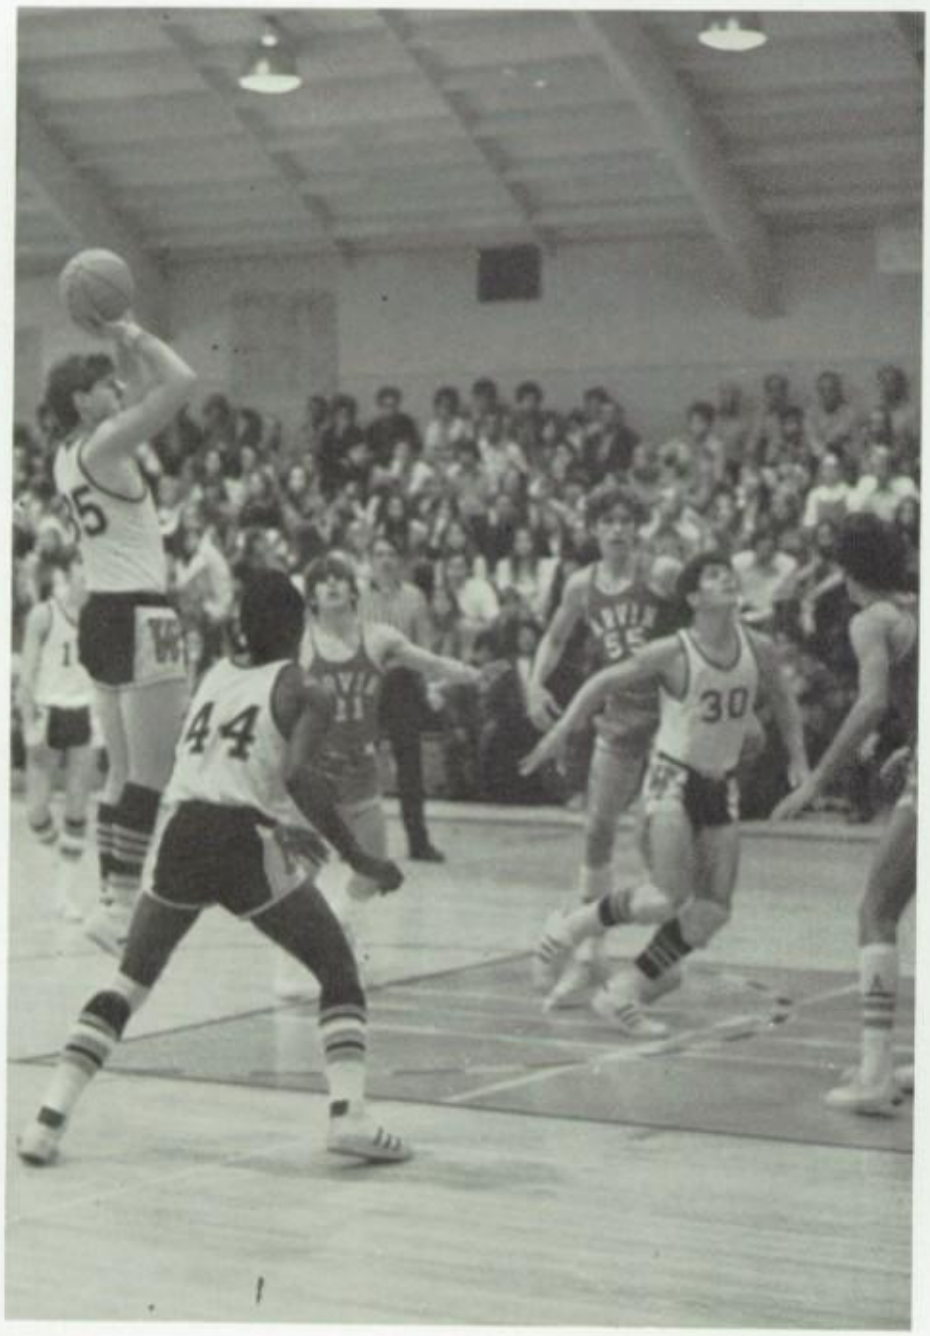
Offense and Defense



J.V. Cagers

The 1972-73 JV Basketball team played a 20 game schedule. The schedule included eight tough non-league games plus the always tough league schedule of 12 games. A season summary is not possible at the time of the writing of this article, but the Cubs hope to overcome early season inexperience and inconsistency and have a successful year against South Sequoia opponents.
Sherman Tolivar began the season on the JV team, but was promoted to the varsity.

This year the C Basketball Team was composed of three sophomores and ten freshmen. They worked hard and learned the offensive and defensive fundamentals that enabled them to play good consistent basketball. By the middle of the season they were in contention for the leadership of the League. This team had the desire and the willingness to work to help them succeed. Varsity Wrestling

The 1972-73 varsity wrestling team has endured a season that was not only hard fought but was also a year in which several Wasco wrestlers matured to a point of dependability where a win, and in most situations a pin, was usually a safe prediction. Wasco ended this year with a fine 7-1-1 record - second only to Shafter.

More Varsity

A successful season is determined by the degree that we achieve our goals based upon the facilities, equipment, personnel and time.

Our team skill goal is the South Sequoia League championship and the Valley Championship. Championship ballplayers are those who make every minute of practice count, pay attention to the "little" things, push themselves to their organic limits, set their objectives high and are willing to pay the price to achieve them.

Freshman Baseball

Through hard work and determination on the frosh baseball team, these young players acquire skill and poise which they hope will raise them to the Varsity ranks. They also further Wasco's great name by playing fine baseball, and deserve all the encouragement we can give them.

1972-73 SWIM TEAM

Swimming is a lot of hard work and this helps to strengthen the minds and bodies of every member of the team. Practice consumes three hours daily and a total of from 7 to 10,000 yards.

Swimming was begun at Wasco High School as a competitive sport fifteen years ago with four swimmers. This year's team has evolved into a forty-five member squad and is divided into three groups, varsity boys, varsity girls and B class boys, one of which has clinched a championship for the previous five consecutive years. It is probable that two championship teams can be claimed this year, also.

Homecoming week was filled with intense rivalry as the classes began work on their floats. Pictured at the left are seniors: Nancy Lindgren and Tim Reiswig, working on a poster for the senior float while others look on.

On Homecoming night the crowds eagerly anticipated the announcement of the Queen and the winning float. The crowds agreed with the judges decision to give first place to the senior float and the evening was then highlighted by the crowning of Miss Suki Dennis as, 1972 Homecoming Queen.

The ensemble's principle soloists are: Renee Grizzell, flute; Phill Howard, baritone saxophone and student arranger; Bob Heywood, tenor saxophone; Danny Watts, trombone; and Vernon Chappel, piano.

The members of the ensemble have continued producing the sounds that have done much to make the student body be known as the "hippest" in the valley. Wail on, Apollo!

Babes in Politics

This year our school sent two representatives to Boy's and Girl's State. Debbi Allen and Gary Forney were the two privileged ones.

The idea of Boy's and Girl's State is to let the students actively participate in different forms of state government. They start with city government and then move to state levels of government. In the picture below, Gary and Debbi are portraying the judicial part of government.

Debbi had this to say about Girl's State, "You learn much more about government by participating than by being in a classroom situation."

"I met many interesting people from all over the state," was Gary's thoughts of Boy's State.

Eager Editors

This year our staff would like to pay special tribute to the editors of the Tiger Rag and also to the editors of the Wasconian. Below: Editors Jan Merz and Lyndon Karbor, are busily finishing a deadline for the Tiger Rag. To the left editors Nancy Lindgren and Gary Forney are discussing possibilities for a layout.

FFA Story

Following the 1972 Parents and Friends Banquet, thirteen FFA members exhibited 6 steers, 12 hogs, and 1 lamb at the Junior Cow Palace in San Francisco. Wayne Ledbetter won a Merit Award Steer. Wasco FFA members attending the Cow Palace were Dan Gallardo, Charles Parker, Ronnie Snow, Rick Taylor, Wayne Ledbetter, Greg Malofy, Chris Crawford, James Daniels, Lyle Day, Emmett Dodd, Greg Perryman, Brad Smothers, and Rueben Perez.

Mr. Swenson from Cal Poly did his student intern teaching at Wasco during the Spring semester. The FFA Field Day included work, play, and a barbecue in the park for 65 FFA members. A trip to San Luis Obispo for Poly Royal and Open House at Wasco High, where Kin Krause won the showmanship contest, rounded out April, 1972. Warren Bone, Chris Crawford, Wayne Ledbetter, Danny Martin, Rick Taylor, and Greg Malofy were Kern Section Project Competition winners. Greg Malofy received the State Farmer Degree at the FFA State Convention. Wasco delegates attending FFA State Convention were Rick Taylor and Cary Williams. Children of the North Kern Orthopedic School had a fun day at Disneyland with the help of FFA members Randy Crosby, Emmett Dodd, Junior Gann, Wayne Ledbetter, Greg Malofy, James Medrano, Sharon Mosby, James Parks, Charles Parker, Rueben Perez, Greg Perryman, Brad Smothers, Aubrey Richardson, Marshall Richardson, Rick Wallace, and Rick Taylor. Program planning for 1972-73 was done at the Scout camp in Avila with FFA officers Danny Martin, Wayne Ledbetter, Cary Williams, Rick Taylor, and Kin Krause. Advisors attending were Mr. Craig and Mr. Cheatwood.

The new FFA program featured the State Fair in August. Those attending were Warren Bone, James Daniels, Lyle Day, Emmett Dodd, Kin Krause, Wayne Ledbetter, James Medrano, and Charles Parker. Wasco FFA's involvement in the Wasco Rose Festival was a big one including building a float and preparing a barbecue for 2,500 people. Sweepstakes in Agricultural mechanics, a third place Garden Scene and Feature Booth, crops exhibits and livestock were exhibited at the Kern County Fair. A champion boar by Charles Parker, champion ram by James Parks, and Reserve champion Hereford by Dan Gallardo are worth mentioning. Charles Parker, Sharon Mosby, Kin Krause, and Greg Malofy placed fourth in the State Cotton Judging Contest. Charles Parker placed first in cotton plants. The Wasco FFA made a grand sweep in the Kern Section Opening and Closing Ceremony contests. The Freshmen team of Greg Grant, Craig Fulwyler, Diane Walls, Rocky Wagner, Tom McGuire, and Norman Jones won first place. The regular team of Cary Williams, Ricky Taylor, Wayne Ledbetter, Charles Parker, Kin Krause, and Warren Bone also placed first. Preparing the barbecue dinner and serving the Wasco Chamber of Commerce dinner provided an opportunity to raise money for the North Kern Orthopedic School Disneyland trip for 1973. Participating in a regular basketball game and in a donkey basketball game against McFarland was a fun adventure during FFA week. Students getting a few bumps and bruises were Kin Krause, Emmett Dodd, Myron Williams, Ronnie Snow, Rick Taylor, Charles Parker, Tom McGuire, James Daniels, James Medrano, Darren Eddy, Steve Hosman, Tony Criner, Steve Southard, Brad Smothers, James Parks, Norman Jones, Dewayne Hart, and even Chapter advisor, Mr. Cheatwood. Team competition in parliamentary procedure started at the Field Day in Sierra with a sixth place win. Team members were Cary Williams, Warren Bone, Rick Taylor, Charles Parker, and Kin Krause. Speakers were Charles Parker, Cary Williams, Kin Krause, and Rick Taylor.

Advisors for the year were Charles Craig, Director of Agriculture; Gary Cheatwood, and Clifton Piper. An excellent group of freshmen and sophomores are looking forward to greater things in 1973-74.

The yearbook is a compendium of pleasant school memories. It becomes even more pleasant with each passing year. As a chronicle of school happenings, the yearbook serves the school and, most important, its students by recording the events and activities of the year. The yearbook staff and its advisor have prepared an outstanding compilation in words and pictures of the year. It was a great year, an important year in the lives of everyone attending Wasco High. It was a year of success. It was a year of achievement. It is a year that each of us can look back on with fond memories. Lastly, it was a year that will serve as a guideline for the many young people who will follow in succeeding years.

Commercials

IN APPRECIATION

The Commercials section of the Wasconian has a significant influence over the financial structure of the entire book. This section provides color and depth for the pages, makes it possible for the Wasconian Staff to acquire the facilities and equipment necessary to create a yearbook and it also promotes business in our fine community.

The staff for the 1973 Wasconian would like to extend their deepest appreciation to all who contributed and supported us by buying ads in our book.

Thank you

THE BLADES OF GRASS
by Stephen Crane

In Heaven,
Some little blades of grass
Stood before God.
"What did you do?"
Then all save one of the little blades
Began eagerly to relate
The merits of their lives.
This one stayed a small way behind,
Ashamed.

Presently, God said,
"And what did you do?"
The little blade answered, "Oh, my Lord,
Memory is bitter to me,
For if I did good deeds,
I know not of them."
Then, God, in all his splendor,
Arose from his throne.
"Oh, best little blade of grass!" he said.
